

EVENT & CULTURAL COMMITTEE

Preamble:

Apart from studies, a student must participate in extra-curricular activities. This is also required for the overall development of the student. In today's world, the students are assessed not only on the basis of their academic achievements, but participation in the extra-curricular activities also plays a vital role in it. The committee named as literary and Cultural Committee is helpful in this regard as it encourages students for participation and involvement in several activities with a view to achieve the set goal of their cultural and psychological growth. The Committee ensures that the students are well acquainted about the university culture. The Committee ensures a platform to all the students to explore new culture dimensions and talents in various areas.
